A SAMPLING OF THE BEST THINGS TO SEE AND DO THIS WEEK

Dance

This week, choreographer Clove Galilee teams up with director and designer Jenny Rogers for Trick Saddle, a reimagined version of the traditional Western. In Saddle, presented at P.S. 122 Friday 24 through February 9, the pair explores the myth of the cowboy with the help of a cinematic water ballet (Esther Williams provides the inspiration) and an all-female cast. Through video, dance, dialogue and live music, this group poses questions about the notion of heroism. Dance starts on page 69.
